

NEW ART COURSES

figure ♦ landscape ♦ still life ♦ portrait

In depth and rewarding drawing and painting classes for all levels of ability and experience

Sessions hosted by artist Marion Thomson, BA, PG Dip RAS

Marion is a practising artist and exhibits regularly. She studied fine Art at University of Newcastle upon Tyne and the Royal Academy Schools, London. Having taught adults and students painting and drawing, including life drawing for over ten years at The Sheffield College, Marion understands how to encourage students to explore their individual ideas and further their creative development, producing exciting and pleasing works of art.

Classes

The classes of up to 12 people are aimed at those interested in drawing and painting for their own enjoyment and personal development. All abilities are welcome, for complete beginners to more experienced students

The classes will run for seven weeks and cover the fundamentals of drawing and painting based on still life, landscape figure and portrait. Teaching will be tailored to meet all individual needs. You will be encouraged to experiment in different drawing and painting media including; graphite, charcoal, pastel, watercolour, gouache, oil and mixed media.
